

Your party will be successful if you serve -- "PURITY" Brick Cream

LEADWOOD

N. E. Viles, a representative of the Western Welfare Chautauqua Co., was here Tuesday looking after the interests of the Chautauqua which will be held here from July 19th to 21st. They have some very fine numbers on the program this year.

Slim Pickens has received, through the mails, a bottle of dandruff cure, and is taking two teaspoonfuls after each meal.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Clay visited at Desloge last Sunday and attended the Crowe and Hobbs meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bible, of Flat River, visited relatives here part of this week.

Thos. Williams, of St. Louis, spent last week here visiting friends.

Mrs. Wm. Farley returned home Monday from Bellevue, where she had been at the bedside of a sister, who has been sick.

Miss Pearl Sizemore is spending this week with relatives in Flat River.

Miss Gladys Clay is visiting relatives in Flat River.

Misses Stella, Bernice and Edith Hammon, of Flat River, spent the past two weeks with R. Arpoldi and family.

Stanfill Day, of Bonne Terre, is spending this week here visiting his uncle, Wm. Day, and family.

R. Arnoldi and family, who have been camping out near the Highway for the past two weeks, returned home the latter part of last week.

Wm. McClard and family spent the week-end at Minnison, Mo., visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Goodman, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Lumos were in Irondale Saturday night attending public installation of the officers of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges there.

Dr. D. Appleberry and family drove to St. Louis Sunday morning to spend the day with relatives.

J. H. Akers was a visitor at Belgrade last Sunday.

Sheriff John G. Hunt, of Farmington, was here last Friday a short time on business.

James Bohanon and family have moved to Picher, Okla., where they expect to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, of Fredericktown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kemp here a part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Moon, of Bonne Terre, visited friends here Sunday afternoon.

Jos. Harper was a passenger on the afternoon train Sunday to St. Louis, where he has gone to hunt work.

Geo. Wilson, who has been working at Buffalo, N. Y., the past two years, is at home on a visit for a few days with relatives and friends.

Louis Ringer, of near Bonne Terre, was here last Wednesday visiting relatives and friends. We are glad to see Mr. Ringer looking so well after being so near death's door as he was a few weeks ago. He says that he is rapidly gaining strength, and he thinks by fall he will be himself again.

Judge R. C. Tucker, of Farmington, was here last Wednesday interviewing the Democratic voters.

Everett Lumos, who has been stationed at Camp Meade, N. J., the past year, reached home last Wednesday. Everett has been in Germany quite a while after the close of the war.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. N. O'Neal, on June 15th, a baby girl. This is No. 4 for Sam, and all girls.

Judge James H. Orten, of Farmington, was here last Wednesday looking up the Democratic voters, as he is a candidate for Presiding Judge of the County Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson were visiting relatives in Butler county last week.

Dr. J. L. Eaton, of Bismarck, who is a candidate for Congress of the 13th District, was here last Thursday shaking hands with the voters. The doctor is a fine mixer, and has many warm friends here in both of the political parties.

F. M. Janis went to St. Louis a few days ago in search of work, got back last Friday. Fred says that he found several jobs but the wages paid would hardly support a family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Francis, of Bonne Terre, visited relatives here last week.

S. F. Sargent, of Miami, Okla., is here visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Sargent left here about four years ago, and while she likes Miami pretty well, there is no place like old Missouri to her. She reports H. A. Blake, father of Rosa Blake, who was superintendent of the plant here for the St. Joseph Lead Co., in very poor health, and says that it is a matter of only a short time for him here. Mrs. Sargent will visit her daughter, Mrs. Joy Parashes, at Omaha, Nebr., before returning to Miami.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Francis, June 18th, a baby girl.

J. A. Evans and family, C. H. Dixon and family, A. B. Deremiah and family and Mrs. S. F. Sargent motored out near Doe Run Junction last Friday evening and had supper.

Mr. and Mrs. John Denton and brother, James, and sister, Miss Gladys, and Lester Clark were fishing at Iron Mountain lake Friday.

About 25 members of the Methodist church gave Rev. J. C. Reid and family a surprise party last Friday evening, it being the occasion of Rev. Reid's and his youngest daughter's birthday. They took with them many useful birthday presents, and after spending about three hours in interesting games and pleasant conversation, all departed for home, wishing Rev. Reid and Miss Opal many returns of the day.

A few families from here drove to Iron Mountain lake last Wednesday evening for an outing and a fish fry. They sent Dr. D. Appleberry and Henry Stapp in advance to catch the fish for supper. When the folks reached the lake, Appleberry and Stapp had about 50 little and big fish ready for supper, which they were supposed to have caught. But as there is a crippled man there who catches and sells fish for a living, it is believed that they bought the fish, as they had too many for two men to catch in so short a time.

Mrs. J. H. Eaton and daughter, Miss Nina Maude, who have been visiting relatives and friends at Potosi and Caledonia the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

The Leadwood baseball team journeyed to Annapolis last Sunday and defeated their team 15 to 1. Our boys are playing splendid ball this year and have only lost one game this season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Edmonds visited relatives at Bellevue last Sunday.

J. F. Beckler and Chas. Penberthy were in Potosi Sunday.

Mrs. Cora Belmer, who moved from here to Fort Dodge, Iowa, about the middle of May, is back here visiting relatives and friends. She has not fully decided just where she will locate, but thinks she will either locate here or at Festus.

Amos DeClue, of Desloge, was transacting business here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Vogt and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mason and baby, of Bonne Terre, visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

J. R. Poston, of Bonne Terre, visited relatives and friends here Monday.

D. M. Smith and Chester Clark are spending the week at Iron Mountain lake camping and fishing.

L. F. Kinder, of Flat River, was here looking up the Republican voters Monday, he being a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaborn Thompson and family, of Irondale, visited their son, R. C. Thompson, and wife Sunday.

Presiding Elder O. H. Duggins, of Farmington, preached at the Methodist church here Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Furry, of St. Louis, visited relatives and friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Towl visited friends in Bonne Terre Sunday afternoon.

Hiram C. Johnson, of Bismarck, who is a candidate for Representative on the Democratic ticket, was here calling on the voters Monday.

Dr. Shoemaker, of Flat River, was here Monday on business. The doctor is thinking of opening a dental parlor here for two days each week.

Miss Afton McGee, who has been ill at her home for some time, is now able to be up. Miss Afton holds a very responsible position in St. Louis, and in a few months she hopes to be able to return to work.

BISMARCK

Chas. Kettinger came home Sunday night after a visit of a week at the home of relatives and friends in St. Louis.

Lee Polk has returned home from a visit of a few weeks with relatives at Mt. Vernon, Ill.

W. L. Bouchard, editor of the Desloge Sun, was a Bismarck visitor a short while Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McCoy and family, of Poplar Bluff, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. McCoy, and family.

Mrs. Elmer Strausser and baby, of Madison, Ill., came home Sunday noon for a visit of a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lindsey, and family.

Misses Mary and Fannie Sinclair, of St. Louis, spent the week-end at the homes of relatives and friends near here.

Mrs. J. F. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wilson, of Monterey, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Coxey. Mrs. Katherine Wilson returned home with them after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. V. Coxey, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman West and son, Jewell, of Loughboro, spent Sunday at the home of his brother, Alley West, and family.

Mr. Wilford, of Poplar Bluff, spent the week-end at the home of Gus Lynch.

Miss Lillian Walker is spending the week at the homes of relatives at Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erbe, of Ironton, visited N. Polk Sunday.

Miss Anne Marie Kendall, of Ironton, spent Sunday afternoon in Bismarck, the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. M. E. Kelly and children left Tuesday for a ten-days' visit with relatives and friends at Mount Vernon, Ill.

Mrs. G. W. Buford was taken to the Baptist Sanitarium in St. Louis last Thursday, where she underwent an operation. She is getting along fine at this writing.

John Hook was an Ironton visitor Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Inman went to St. Louis Sunday afternoon for a visit of a few days with relatives.

Dr. F. W. Gale was called to Iron Mountain Saturday night to see Mrs. Crawford, who was critically ill of typhoid fever. Later on the next morning she passed away. She leaves a husband and one child, an infant of three months, who is staying at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gale, where it is getting the best of care.

Mrs. Wm. Hartenbeck passed to the great beyond Friday evening after a lingering illness. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. W. Ham. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Deceased was aged about 66 years. We extend sympathy to the husband.

The Bismarck base ball team went to Ironton Sunday afternoon and played the team there and were defeated by the score of 5 to 4. The home boys took an early lead and held it as long as Barnes pitched, but Barnes was removed from the game in favor of Hahn, who was as wild as a Kansas cyclone, and Ironton took the lead. Martin pitched the latter part of the game for Bismarck and held the opposing batters helpless.

The Caledonia base ball team was through here Sunday enroute to their home from Elvins, where they had played and were defeated 10 to 6.

The Leadwood base ball team was here Sunday from Annapolis, where they defeated the team of that place, the score being 15 to 2.

Elmer Evans and his base ball team from Flat River were through here Saturday night on their way to Poplar Bluff, where they played the Bluff boys the next day and were defeated.

Fred Ritter was a Flat River visitor Tuesday.

Miss Edith Long, of St. Louis, is spending this week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Long.

Miss Lena Lang, of St. Louis, came home Friday night for a visit with her brother, Hy, and family.

A number of young folks enjoyed a dance at the home of Frank Tucker Saturday. Those attending report an excellent time.

Miss Marie Bisplinghoff of St. Louis spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bisplinghoff, and family.

The boys' ball team from Bellevue came here Saturday afternoon and played a game with the boys' team of this place. The home boys won, the score being 8 to 2.

John Beard, of St. Louis, was home the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hood, of Bonne Terre, were visitors near here Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Burch was an Elvins visitor Saturday afternoon.

T. C. Zapf and sons, Henry and Albert, and Choletz Beard were Doe Run visitors Sunday afternoon.

Great progress is being made on the new state highway, being built near here, but the road will not be ready for traffic for over two months.

Mrs. C. H. Lucy visited her daughter in Bonne Terre Thursday.

Mrs. W. E. Matkin and daughter, Miss Emily, of Farmington, were the guests of Mrs. J. L. Eaton Friday afternoon.

H. L. Bell, of Bellevue was here Sunday.

The Woman's Democratic Club will meet Saturday afternoon, June 24, to arrange for the Woman's 13th Congressional District Convention that has been called to meet at Bismarck June 29th.

Miss Benson, of Steelville, Mo., is visiting the family of Chas. Townsend this week.

A number of our people attended the Carnival at Elvins Tuesday.

Dr. J. L. Eaton is making a most vigorous campaign for Congress and our inquiries reveal the fact that he has appreciable strength in every county in the district, and the consensus of opinion is that he will win in the primary, and win in November.

His well-known record for economy is in his favor. He is not bound by any group or faction. Laboring men and farmers have no less an ally in him than the business and professional men. He is a forceful and able contender on the stump. It looks like he is the logical winner.

VALLE MINES

Miss Elsie Hoxton and Perry Roughly visited at the home of Turner Horn Sunday.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS Fourth of July Picnic CARLETON COLLEGE CAMPUS Farmington, Mo.

Have arranged for DeSoto Knights of Pythias fifteen-piece band.

For stand rights, send bids to, or see

J. C. HEIFNER, FARMINGTON, MO., CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE.

Carl Richardson, of French Village, visited at the home of Dr. Shannon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis and children visited Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Heaton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thurman visited his parents here last week.

Rudolph Bellville, of Oak Vale, visited at the home of James Appleberry Sunday.

Clarence Sykes visited at the home of Jake Larkin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ratty, of Festus, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ratty, Saturday and Sunday.

Theo. Statzel visited at the home of Perry Whitesell Sunday.

Otto Michael visited at the home of Chris Statzel Sunday.

Theo. Bieser, of Koester, visited at the home of Roughly brothers Sunday.

Miss Lucy Allen, of Desloge, visited her aunt, Mrs. Turner Horn, a few days this week.

Misses Carrie Shannon and Clara Douglas visited at the home of Mrs. Effie Turley Saturday.

Reuben Horn, who has been in the Barnes hospital in St. Louis, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Decker of DeSoto visited their daughter, Mrs. Monroe Nash Sunday.

Wm. Meyer, of Farmington was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Manuel Moses and Misses Olga and Elsie Heaton visited at the home of Thos. Head Saturday.

Miss Gertrude and Cletus Harverstick visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Horn, Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Riddle left for California Tuesday.

Jas. Douglas visited at the home of Wm. Watt Sunday.

Anna Rowe, who has been working in St. Louis, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Effie Turley visited her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Whitesell, Sunday.

Geo. Burns visited Greene White Sunday.

Mrs. Chris Statzel and son, Theodore, visited her brother, Pete Turley, Saturday.

Kennett Turley visited his uncle, Geo. Turley, Saturday and Sunday.

S. P. Cole visited at the home of Wm. Crutcher Sunday.

Elmer Moon visited at the home of Ed Richardson Sunday.

Fenton Thurman visited Alfred Rowe Sunday.

John Woolem visited at the home of Turner Horn Sunday and Monday.

Miss Lucy Allen visited at the home of Emily Grandjean Monday.

Thelma and Carl Horn were Bonne Terre visitors Saturday.

Miss Blanche Heaton visited her sister, Mrs. H. C. Rhodes, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The dance given at the home of Bud Riddle Saturday was largely attended and a good time had by all.

Miss Della Turley, of DeSoto, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Turley Saturday.

Miss Olga Heaton visited Mrs. Effie Turley Thursday.

Zeno Douglas visited Perry Whitesell Thursday.

here with Miss Thelma Crabtree.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Crabtree and little daughter, Doris, and Miss Edith Jamison, Thelma and Naomi Crabtree and Orin Bartley of Flat River, spent Sunday at Silver Dam, fishing.

Miss Margaret Shelton, of Doe Run Junction, visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ham visited Joe Montgomery at Bellevue last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Penberthy, of Bismarck, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. Crabtree here Sunday.

FLAT RIVER

*Mrs. J. Keith was a business visitor in St. Louis the first of the week.

Mrs. Jas. Mecey and son, Lawrence, of Phoenix, Ariz., came here Thursday for an extended visit with her sisters, Mrs. J. J. Zimmerman and Miss Dorothy Bown.

Mrs. W. McAnnally visited friends in Desloge Tuesday.

Miss Emma Padburg, of St. Louis is visiting friends here.

Miss Hilda Schlick, who has been attending school at Arcadia College, returned home Tuesday to spend the summer vacation with her parents.

Miss Hilda graduated from the eighth grade this year.

Miss Altha Pierson visited home folks at Iron Mountain this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Moran and children, Anna and Gentry, and Mrs. J. P. Simpson, of Libertyville, spent Sunday here with Dr. T. L. Haney and family.

Misses Elsie Schlick, Edythe Ledbetter and Patricia Matkin and Pat Murphy, John Ney and Jap Falk, of Bonne Terre, enjoyed an outing to Hunt's ford, near Leadwood, Wednesday evening.

Ray Mangum, who formerly attended high school here, but is now a student in the University at Columbia, Mo., is visiting friends here.

Miss Mamie Barron has resigned her position at the Variety store.

Mrs. Luther Mayberry returned Saturday from St. Louis, where she had spent the past month visiting her daughters, Misses Opal and Lila Mayberry.

T. A. Hood resigned his position with the Telephone Co., and left Sunday for Detroit, where he has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, of Marshall, Mo., are visiting friends here.

Mrs. F. J. Liszt and sister, Miss Nell Reeves, and Miss Violet Rogers attended the celebration at Elvins Tuesday.

Alf Roberts and Leo Falk, of Bonne Terre, visited friends here Friday.

Mrs. N. M. Fuller, of Desloge, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. G. Wheeler and children visited relatives at Desloge Tuesday.

Mrs. L. P. Pressler and children, Philip and Loraine, left Monday for Colorado, where they will spend the summer visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Violet Rogers went to Mine La Motte Saturday where she will visit relatives for several weeks.

Judge Mitchell, of Farmington, was a caller here Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Jones and children and Mrs. T. Hood and baby visited friends here Tuesday.

Word was received here this week announcing the birth of a baby girl, born June 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mayberry, of Detroit, Mich., who until about three years ago made their home in Flat River.

Mrs. B. Phillips and son, Nicholas, went to St. Louis Monday on business.

Miss Mamie Barron and Arthur Counts were married Monday evening, June 12. Miss Barron is one of Flat River's best young women, and until recently was employed in Matthews store. The groom is employed at Federal. They will make their home here, where they have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy married life.

Everette Pulliam, of Mine La Motte, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Mrs. Wendal Covington, of Marshall, Mo., is visiting her mother, Mrs. G. Horn, this week.

Miss Belya Watts returned home from St. Louis Sunday, where she had been the past few weeks with friends.

Miss Clara Womack came here from Fredericktown Thursday to join her parents, who moved here several weeks ago.

J. Murrill, of Farmington, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Dr. T. L. Haney made a professional call to Avon this week.

Misses Marcelite, Martha and Leona McCarver, Mr. and Mrs. A. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. P. Estes and children motored to Iron Mountain where they enjoyed an outing.

Mrs. B. Peltz, of Farmington, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Richeson visited in Desloge Tuesday.

Dr. Cronbaugh spent Tuesday night in Bonne Terre with relatives.

H. E. Levenenz, of St. Louis, who formerly was in business here, spent several days here this week.

L. C. LaPlant was a business visitor in Farmington Monday and Tuesday.

Misses Violet Rogers and Nellie Reeves and Howard Maxon and Jas. Pettison were Farmington visitors Sunday.

Mrs. T. A. Brewen was painfully hurt Sunday evening, when the car in which she was riding turned over, falling on her. She was rushed to the National hospital, where it was found she had a number of bruises, but not seriously hurt. None of the other occupants were injured.

Mrs. Wm. Straughn and daughter, Mrs. M. Welland, of Cantwell, visited Mrs. Straughn's daughter, Mrs. Wm. Howell, Wednesday.

B. Silvey, of Farmington, was a business caller here Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Pierson visited Mrs. T. A. Hood in Desloge Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Zimmerman went to St. Louis Wednesday on business.

Miss Dodson, a nurse in the Bonne Terre hospital, was a Flat River visitor Saturday.

J. Marshall, of Farmington, made a business call here Wednesday.

Mrs. P. Burns has accepted a position in the office of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

Mrs. G. N. McClure, of Bonne Terre, spent Wednesday of last week with her mother, Mrs. H. J. Kennedy, here.

Mrs. G. B. Williams and daughter, Miss Nellie, were in Farmington Saturday.

Misses Allean Nalle, Minnie Goldstein, Nellie Williams, Vida and Bernice Tucker, Mary Alice Marsh, accompanied by Mrs. T. C. Marsh, spent several days last week at Loughboro on a camping trip.

Mrs. John Govro and daughter, of Elvins, visited friends here Monday.

Miss Hazel Post, of Caledonia, visited friends here the first of the week.